TRIED TO FORCE WAY INTO TRIAL

Of Pastor Price Charged With Misconduct By Women of Congregation

STOPPED AT THE DOOR

Jane Est, Member of the I. W. of W., Created Consternation to Those in Charge — Witness Says She Was Intimidated by Several Persons.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

New York, April 4.—Jane Est, heretofore identified with movements of the Industrial Workers of the World, created consternation at the Metropolitan Temple today by trying to force her way into the trial of Dr. Jacob E. Price, pastor of the Washington Heights Methodist Episcopal church, who is charged with misconduct by nine women members of his congregation.

At the door she was confronted by Dr. Frank J. Belcher, pastor of the Five Points Mission, acting as attorney for the defendant.

"Let me in," she shouted in tones which immediately drew a large crowd. "This is not a private trial; ecclesiasticism itself is on trial. Ecclesiasticism has always whitewashed the church whenever charges are made against pastors. These trials ought to be held out in the open where people can hear them. There is a great deal of talk about shielding the pastor.

"I want to see Dr. Price," she continued. "I'd like to see him try to kiss me."

It has been charged that Dr. Price, among other things, tried to kiss a woman member of his congregation.

Followed by the crowd the woman succeeded in passing her way into the temple but could get no farther than the witness room. Here she described herself as a "church cleaner."

During the I. W. W. raids on New York churches recently Jane Est was a prominent speaker. She compared the movement to the French revolution.

Mrs. Hilam Dohl, whose testimony was excluded yesterday since her charge was not included in the general complaint was allowed to take the stand. She said she had been improperly approached by Dr. Price and that she had subsequently received visits from two persons who tried with threats and intimidation to prevent her from testifying.

She had decided, she said, not to press the charges on account of her children but upon opening the Bible for inspiration her finger fell upon a verse which seemed to urge her to action.

The pastor of the temple, the Rev. George W. Downs, failing in an effort to keep the woman quiet, called in a policeman who escorted her from the place and warned her to stay out.

Outside she shouted that she intended to visit the Eighteenth street church where the Methodist Episcopal conference was in session. A minister heard her and rushed to the church in a taxicab. When she arrived, the conference had been hastily adjourned.

RESERVE FUND DECREASES.

New York, April 4.—The statement of the actual condition of clearing house banks and trust companies for the week shows that they hold $10,453,500 reserve in excess of legal requirements. This is a decrease of $11,884,450 from last week.

MINERS REFUSE TO GO TO WORK UNDER OLD SCALE

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Cannonsburg, Pa., April 4.—Representatives of the Pittsburgh, Buffalo Company today flatly told its 800 miners who yesterday demanded that they be paid on a run of mine basis, that the company would not inaugurate the new system. There has been no disorder at the mines but a number of guards have been assigned to duty at the Hazel Pit near here.

It was said that fully 20,000 miners in Washington county today have refused to obey the officers of their union and return to work pending the signing of the scale.

TWO MEN HAVE DISCRETION TO GIVE AWAY A MILLION.

(Associated Press Telegram.)

New York, April 4.—The distribution of $1,000,000 to worthy charities is the work assigned to George Ramsey and ~~William McMaster Mills, named~~ as executors of her estate by Mrs. Amelia Gertrude Cutler, who died yesterday. No particular charity is mentioned in the will, details of which were made public today, the distribution of the funds being left to the discretion of the executors.

Mrs. Cutler was the wife of Henry T. Cutler, who died on January 21, leaving an estate of $1,500,000 at the sole disposal of his widow.

Hon. Edward Kibler Has Narrow Escape From Death When Car Hits His Auto

Caught in a closed coupe which was struck and overturned by an eastbound city car, Hon. Edward Kibler experienced a remarkable escape from serious injury Saturday morning, according to witnesses. As it was, his motor car was wrecked and he sustained a bad shaking up and severe bruises and an abrasion on the left leg. Dr. J. P. H. Stedem examined him and declared his injuries apparently slight.

Mr. Kibler was coming from his home in Granville street down to his offices. He was alone in the coupe, and had crossed from Fifth onto the south side of Church street, when the street car struck the rear of his machine, turning it completely over and throwing it some distance from the track. Mr. Kibler was pinioned in the closed doors of the coupe, and the aid of pedestrians and car passengers was necessary to extricate him.

He declared he could not tell how the accident happened. The street car, No. 576, was in charge of Conductor Harry Burgess, and operated by Motorman Homer Snelling. The motorman said he was unable to stop his car in time to prevent the collision.

Daniels Confirmed As Member of Interstate Commerce Commission

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, April 4.—Confirmation of Winthrop M. Daniels of New Jersey, as a member of the interstate commerce commission, after the notable three days' senate fight, was followed today by the revelation that Dr. Daniels asked President Wilson to withdraw his name and thus stop the contest, which he believed to be embarrassing the president and that Mr. Wilson refused.

There was natural satisfaction at the White House today that Mr. Daniels had been confirmed. The sharp contest was regarded by officials as of importance in revealing the attitude of senators toward the physical valuation of railroads.

While house officials said there was no truth in the story that the president had expressed to senators his own views on the theories of physical valuation of railroads but had merely insisted that Mr. Daniels would be a valuable addition to the commission with a fair and equitable attitude to all questions coming before it.

Interest in legislation on the senate side of the capitol lagged today while senators discussed the attitude of nine of their number who are in open revolt against meetings behind closed doors except for consideration of foreign relations. The revolt, led by Senator Lafollette, came last night during a heated executive session in which the senate, by a vote of 36 to 27 confirmed the nomination of Winthrop M. Daniels, as a member of the interstate commerce commission.

With Senators Lafollette, Cummins, Kenyon, Norris, Bristow, Clapp, Jones, Gronna and Poindexter promising to talk publicly and freely about all domestic matters considered in executive session in future, it was conceded that virtually nothing could be accomplished by closing the senate's doors to the public and the press. There was much speculation as to whether the senators would hold to their position, and whether an effort to materially alter the rules would result. It was understood that no one contemplated an attempt to have the senators disciplined for violating the rule of secrecy.

The confirmation of Mr. Daniels closed a contest that had occupied the senate for four days and which was marked by one of the bitterest debates ever heard in the upper house of congress.

HEAVY ICE IMPEDING PROGRESS

Of Bellaventure Which Is Bringing Bodies of Newfoundland To Port

HAS THIRTY SURVIVORS

Who Were Picked Up From the Ice Floes by Rescue Ship During Terrible Three-Day Blizzard—List of Dead is Seventy-Seven.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

St. Johns, N. F., April 4.—The steamer Bellaventure, bringing thirty survivors and most of the bodies of the seventy-seven members of the crew of the sealing steamer Newfoundland, who lost their lives in Tuesday's storm was thirty miles east of this port at daylight today.

Heavy ice was so impeding her progress that it was thought probable that she would not come into the harbor until late in the day.

The steamer Kyle, fitted out by the government, sailed early today to search for the missing sealer Southern Cross, which, with 170 men on board, was last sighted Tuesday morning off the southern coast, just to the westward of Cape Pine. The Kyle is equipped with wireless apparatus.

The number of the Newfoundland's dead was placed definitely at seventy-seven today, with the further possibility that several of the rescued would succumb to the effects of the forty-eight hours' exposure. Sixty-nine of the bodies were recovered.

Arrangements were made today for the reception of the rescue ship Bellaventure.

In an effort to solve the mystery of the disappearance of the Southern Cross the Newfoundland government asked the American revenue cutter Seneca to leave the ice patrol and search for the missing sealer.

The coastal steamer, Kyle, was fitted out here for a cruise along the southeastern coast, off which the Southern Cross was last seen Tuesday morning, a few hours before the three days' blizzard set in.

Although the vessels of the so-called Wooden-Walled Sealing Fleet, of which the Southern Cross was one, have bucked ice fields with impunity and are regarded as very staunch ships, sealers say that her cargo of 17,000 seal pelts would be an active danger during a storm on account of its instability.

People here are in a frenzy. They are marching the streets, besieging the newspaper, telegraph and government offices for news. No lists of the dead are yet available.

TWO FIRES CAUSE HEAVY LOSSES AT BIRMINGHAM, ALA.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Birmingham, Ala., April 4.—Two fires early today destroyed four business buildings in the heart of this city and a portion of a manufacturing plant in East Birmingham, causing losses estimated at $325,000.

E. H. MOORE DOESN'T WANT JUDGESHIP; PREFERS PRACTICE

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Columbus, April 4.—Ed. H. Moore of Youngstown, former state insurance commissioner, while in Columbus today, declared he does not want the appointment as United States district judge to succeed Judge William L. Day of Cleveland, who resigned several days ago.

"I am not a candidate for anything," said Mr. Moore. "I am perfectly well satisfied to practice law as a private citizen."

NEW YORK WILL SPEND FORTUNE FOR ITS PALMS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

New York, April 4.—About $100,000 will be spent in New York for palms used in churches tomorrow, Palm Sunday. The overwhelming number of palms are bought by Catholics, the dealers making provision for 750,000 persons in New York alone. In the protestant church the use of palms is growing slowly, however. The palms come from Florida and churches pay $4 a hundred heads.

ALBANIA WILL TRY TO SUBDUE GREEK REBELS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Durazzo, Albania, April 4.—Prince William, the new ruler of Albania, today announced his intention of taking the field and leading the Albanian troops against Greek insurgents who have taken the town of Koritza.

Dispatches last night reported the town had been captured and partly destroyed. A general mobilization of the Albanian forces was ordered today.

ANNOUNCED IN ATHENS.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Athens, Greece, April 4. — The Albanian town of Koritza has fallen into the hands of insurgents, according to an official announcement here today. It is explained that the insurgents are Greeks who have risen in opposition to the decision of the European powers that Koritza must belong to Albania.

Reports are current that the insurgents are in the pay of the Greek authorities.

WOMAN MURDERED AND BODY BURNED BY CHINESE BOY.

(Associated Press Telegram.)

Vancouver, B. C., April 4.—That Mrs. Charles J. Millard was murdered and her body burned in the furnace of her home is the belief of the police officials who have been inquiring into the circumstances of her disappearance on Wednesday last. Jack Kong, a Chinese boy 17 years old, is being detained as a result of the evidence which the police have obtained from the ashes of the furnace. What has the appearance of human bones and rings were found charred in the furnace ashes by detectives, when they made an examination last night.

Jack Kong later confessed to the murder.

IS CHARGED WITH KILLING BROTHER

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Cleveland, April 4. — Christian Schwartz, 32, is under arrest here today and may be charged with murder as the result of the killing of his brother, William Schwartz, 28, early this morning. Police say William went to Christian's home last night and a quarrel followed, William leaving to return later with a gun. The shooting followed.

MURDER CHARGE AGAINST TEACHER IS DISMISSED

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Constantinople, April 4.—Nishan Avedighian, an American teacher at the American mission at Sivas, Asiatic Turkey, who had been arrested in connection with the murder of the Rev. Charles H. Holbrook, of Lynn, Mass., a missionary at Soushenir, on Aug. 15 last, was released today. He had succeeded in establishing his innocence of the crime. Four other persons arrested on suspicion, are to be tried on April 18.

The official version of the crime showed that Dr. Holbrook had been killed while sleeping in the garden surrounding the house of an Armenian, who had aroused the hatred of the Turks. Two Turks shot the missionary in mistake for the owner of the house.

Fall Of Torreon Is Still Denied By The Federal Government

It Is Known However That Gen. Huerta And His Ministers Are Not In Ignorance of the Fate of Their Army In the North

REBELS NOW CONTROL HALF OF THE REPUBLIC

Federal Troops Have Possession of Railroad Between Torreon and Saltillo, Connecting for the South at Latter Place—Gen. Velasco's Army, Now in Full Retreat, Must Cut Its Way Through Rebel Territory in Order to Join Other Forces.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Mexico City, April 4.—The federal government still obstinately denied today the capture of Torreon by the rebels. It was assumed in many quarters, however, that General Huerta and his ministers were not in ignorance of the fate of that city.

It was suggested that the withholding of the news from the public was based on psychological rather than on military grounds. It was pointed out by serious-minded people here that the temperament of the Mexican populace was such that news of a disaster like the fall of Torreon might easily start an avalanche of public opinion against the ~~administration which would thus~~ find itself seriously embarrassed at a most critical moment of its career.

The taking of Torreon gives the constitutionalists control of practically half the republic with the exception of the cities of Saltillo and Monterey, the capitals of the states of Coahuila and Neuvo Leon.

Military men regarded the retreat of General Velasco from Torreon as a most dangerous undertaking and they consider the position of General de Moure and General Maas at San Pedro as precarious.

So far as is known here the federal troops still have possession of the railroad between Torreon and Saltillo, at which latter places connections can be made with the south. The rebels, however, infest the region along this main line south of Saltillo. One body of them under General Eulalio Gutierrez has its headquarters at Conception del Oro, the terminus of a branch line from Saltillo, and within striking distance of the main line. The presence of this body and that of other rebel forces in the same vicinity renders improbable an opposed retreat of the federals toward the south. Northward from Saltillo toward Monterey, little difficulty might be encountered by the federal troops and it is not improbable that the fugitives from Torreon will make an attempt to join the federal garrison at Monterey. The escape of General Velasco and his men from the rebels, however, does not appear to be a simple task. Their retreat toward Durango to the southwest or to the north or east is said by military men to be impossible unless they cut their way through rebel territory.

The railroad which connects Torreon and Zacatecas to the south has long been out of commission and now serves only to mark the trail over which General Velasco and his troops will have to march. Before reaching Zacatecas it is thought certain that General Velasco will encounter the rebel forces under General Panfilo Natero and will probably suffer from flanking attacks by rebel troops from Durango.

Military men not intimately connected with the federal administration express the opinion today that General Velasco's retreat will resolve itself into an effort of each man for himself. They say that the next move of the rebels will be to start campaigns against Saltillo and Monterey and possibly expeditions against Zacatecas lying directly south of Torreon.

At the same time the rebel task of attacking and capturing Tampico on the coast of the Gulf of Mexico continues under the direction of General Pablo Gonzales from his headquarters in the city of Victoria.

Another large quanity of small arms and machine guns—although it can not be compared with the amount captured at Torreon, was added to the rebel supply this week when a federal force under Col. Enriquez Perez was cut to pieces

CALLAHAN JURY COULD NOT AGREE; NEW TRIAL DATE

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Winchester, Ky., April 4.—The jury in the case of Thomas Davidson, charged with complicity in the murder of Edward Callahan, former sheriff of Breathitt county, reported to Judge Benton today that it could not agree, and was discharged. Judge Benton immediately set the case for trial again on June 29.

The case was given to the jury late last night and the jury deliberated 35 minutes before retiring for the night. It deliberated further this morning and reported a disagreement when court opened.

Advocate Booklovers' Contest

It isn't mental telepathy. You don't have to read the artist's mind.

It isn't a puzzle contest. You don't have to turn the picture upside down to find a hidden face.

It isn't a matter your life depends on. You don't have to study your hair gray.

It isn't a money scheme. You don't have to spend any to win—unless you've neglected to save your coupons.

It isn't a frame-up. You don't have to sit back and let the other party take the prizes.

It's just a plain, easy, interesting, entertaining bit of fun and amusement for which somebody will be rewarded with $515 in gold, a new motor car, a diamond ring, or any one of the 136 prizes, totaling a value of nearly $4000.

Will that somebody be you?

Many are starting in this contest every day. It is not too late. If you didn't save your coupons the Advocate can supply the back numbers and catalogue.

1. What is the Advocate's object in launching this contest?
2. Who knows who the winners will be?
3. What is to be gained by trying for the prizes?
4. What assurance is there that the contest is not unfair?

These are a few of the questions that have been proposed to the Advocate by friends from time to time, who seem to have overlooked the previous statements appearing in this paper covering all of these points.

Commencing with the last question, the reader has but to refer to the Advocate's reputation of years' standing in this community, as an exponent of fairness and justice in all enterprises. The contest rules are alone sufficient guarantee of the fairness of the contest, while the gentlemen who have accepted the responsibility of judging final results according to the rules, are men whose families and personalities have long been recognized in the community as of the most honorable. Again the reputation of the Advocate, which is a large part of a newspaper's stock-in-trade—is involved in the transaction.

To the third question there are many answers. One is that of the several thousand dollars' worth of attractive prizes, every contestant has an equal chance to win one, and that one will be the first prize for some person. The question is, who? Then there is the entertainment, the pleasure, the instruction gained from studying the pictures. It's a bit of rest from a hard day's labor of brain or muscle, or both. It's fun for the whole family. Do not think for a moment there are not hundreds of families in the several counties of the contest territory who are not working busily on these pictures. This office hears of dozens of such families every day.

The second question requires a short answer. Absolutely nobody knows who the winners will be. This contest COULDN'T BE a cut-and-dried affair if the Advocate wished it to be.

Now, what is the Advocate's object in launching this contest?

First, to bring the Advocate into the homes of those who have not heretofore had an opportunity of reading their home news in the reliable paper with the largest circulation of any in this community, and to apprise those readers of the values offered by Advocate advertisers.

Second, to follow up the line of progress that has always characterized this newspaper, by giving its readers a delightful form of entertainment and amusement by which they may claim hundreds of dollars' worth of valuable prizes in return for a little thought.

In a nut-shell this is the object of this contest.

If readers and contestants could see the daily mails, with their mass of inquiries and expressions of satisfaction with the pictures and delight with the contest in general, and could know how many people in Licking and adjoining counties are watching eagerly for every new picture, they would know what a BOOMING SUCCESS this contest is, and the remarkable interest that is being shown in it wherever the Advocate goes.

Now, YOU GET BUSY and TRY IT YOURSELF. You can win a prize as well as your neighbor. Do not let him think he has anything 'on you' in that matter of wits. Besides, riding around in that nice Ford car or wearing that beautiful ring, or counting that first prize of $515 in gold, would be pretty nice these spring days, wouldn't it?

Look carefully over that list of 136 prizes. They are worth almost $4000. See these prizes in the Newark stores. Remember it is just as easy to start now as it has been at any time since the contest opened. Get the back coupons and a catalogue. That's all. Friends will be glad to help. Your friends are already in the contest. You will be just as welcome as anybody.

Sign the Cards, Return Them to the Secretary Of the Board of Trade

Now is the time to get busy and the time is not far distant when the results will be seen of the application of the new plan to accomplish the industrial advancement of our city. This plan is known well to every citizen practically, and the personal campaign conducted in every precinct by committees appointed by the executive committee of the Board will be in full swing in a very few days.

In the meantime, however, each one will be thoroughly informed of just what will be asked of him, and his duty in the matter. Cards were put in the mail addressed to approximately every owner of real estate in the city whose name appears upon the county auditor's tax duplicate.

This card will inform each one definitely the amount of real estate he is assessed for, and the small proportion he is asked to contribute to the factory fund of the Board of Trade, which is to be used for the sole purpose of inducing new industries to locate in Newark. This proportion is only one-tenth of one per cent and the amount in dollars and cents is stated on the card. This amount is asked to be contributed yearly for three years.

Each one's duty is plain. Your duty should in this case be a pleasant opportunity, and it consists only in making a ready response to the request to become a part of a comprehensive scheme of civic improvement. Your mind should have been made up long before you received your card, but it now remains for you to get into action.

The best way is to sign up the card and return it to the secretary of the Board of Trade by the earliest mail. In this way it can be early ascertained the amount that can probably be expected to come into the trustee's hands, and which can be made available for use at the earliest opportunity.

Furthermore by doing this the canvassing committee in each precinct will have their duties lightened by just that much. Every card signed and returned means one less call for the committee in that precinct, and the aggregate over the entire city means a conservation of energy that can be well directed along some other line.

Get in line. Sign your card and return it to the secretary. If you are not now a member of the Board of Trade become one immediately. Join its activities toward progress and development and you will have done much toward a full, honorable and useful citizenship.

(47) APRIL 4, 1914. (47)

Clip out your coupons neatly, and fill them out clearly and plainly, remembering that in the event of a tie for any prize between two or more contestants, neatness and clear writing will win the judges' favor. The picture is to be a part of the coupon. Do not detach the coupon from the picture.

Send no answers whatever to the Advocate until the contest is ended by the publication of Picture No. 70. Any answers received before that time will be destroyed and will not be counted. Read the rules carefully.

Rules of the Booklovers' Contest.

Any person may compete in this contest who lives either in Licking, Delaware, Knox, Coshocton, Muskingum, Perry, Fairfield or Franklin counties, Ohio, except employes of the Advocate or members of their families.

Answers to the picture must be written upon the coupon blank which will be printed every day with each picture during the seventy publication days the contest will last. Both picture and blank must be clipped from the paper, and the blank properly filled in with the name of book and the author's name together with the name and address of the contestant written clearly and plainly in the space provided. Not more tuan one person's name may be written on any coupon.

Each picture will represent the title of only one book, but there may be some pictures that suggest the title of several books. For the benefit of contestants, and to allow for this variety of solution, any contestant may give as many as five answers to any picture, at will; but not more than one solution may be written on any coupon. If the contestant gives two answers as likely to include the correct one, two coupons must be used; if three answers, three coupons, and so on.

In each instance, whether the contestant gives one answer or five answers to any picture, both the pictures and coupon must be used for each of the answers; and not more than five answers to any picture will be permitted.

If any one of the five answers that may be given to any picture is correct, the contestant will be credited for the correct solution and will not have the incorrect ones counted against his or her chances.

Prizes will be awarded to every contestant, by the Contest Judges, who sends in the largest number of correct answers upon the smallest number of coupons. Thus, if a contestant gives the correct answers to 70 of the pictures and uses only 70 coupons, that contestant will rate higher in the prize awards than one who uses 140 coupons or any higher number up to 350 for supplying the 70 correct answers.

If two or more persons, supplying the same number of correct answers, have used the same number of coupons for their answers, the highest rating will be given to the one whose answers are most neatly prepared, in the opinion of the judges.

No contestant will be allowed to submit more than one set of answers, which must include not less than 70 or more than 350 coupons, with accompanying pictures.

Positively no solution may be sent in to the Contest Editor until every one of the seventy pictures has been printed. Answers in complete sets, as just specified above, will then be received in this office, and should be addressed to "Contest Editor" Booklovers' Contest, Advocate, Newark Ohio. The awards will be made strictly according to the correctness of each set of answers, and the correctness shall be determined by the Finding List, the catalogue issued by us as governing the Booklovers' Contest. This catalogue can be obtained from the Advocate office for 25c (27 cents if by mail), and will include in its 5000 titles every one used in the contest. Awards will be announced in this newspaper after the close of the contest.

It is not absolutely necessary to send in solutions on blanks clipped from the Advocate, as duplicate pictures may be drawn by the contestant, if he or she so desires, or duplicate blanks may be obtained at the office of the Newark (Ohio) Advocate.

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a wellknown authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a teaspoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

Many a man who is an idol before he goes broke may be likened to a shattered idol afterward.

URGE WOMEN TO VOTE IN LOCAL OPTION ELECTION

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Chicago, April 4.—Efforts to assure a large vote by women in the local option elections to be held April 7 in many of the 102 counties of Illinois were renewed today by workers for the anti-saloon league. They contend that saloons will be voted out in many towns if the women take advantage of their new enfranchisement.

More than 300 townships will vote on the saloon question, and temperance leaders predict that women will vote out saloons in ninety per cent of these places. About two thousand saloons are involved.

In Elgin and Aurora, club women and church leaders are very active in arousing those of their sex to vote against barrooms.

BIGGEST SHIP 5 BLOCKS LONG

The distinction of being the largest ship in the world is now held by the S. S. Vaterland of the Hamburg-American Line. While closely resembling her famous sister ship, the Imperator, the new queen of the seas exceeds her in all dimensions. The Vaterland measures 950 feet, or nearly five city blocks in length, 100 feet in width, and has a tonnage of 58,000. The leading decorators of Europe have been engaged to design and furnish her sumptuous cabins, each of which is a masterpiece in its decorative style. The Vaterland will sail from Hamburg on her maiden trip June 4th, arriving in New York on June 11th.

$40 GORDON AUTO SEAT COVERS, PRIZE

This $40.00 Gordon Auto Seat cover outfit is one of the splendid prizes in the Advocate's Big Contest —one that will be appreciated by every auto owner in the contest. It can be seen at the F. E. Forsythe garage, corner Fourth and Church streets. Mr. Forsythe has a big line of Studebakers and Maxwell cars. He has a number of fine ones on exhibition in the Auto Show in the Arcade. Read the following interesting article about the Studebaker:

Grant's Pass, Oregon, may be a bit off the line of most persons' travel, yet its isolated position does not imply that it is beyond taking on some metropolitan airs. Its citizens are intensely public spirited so, when it became known that a carload of new Studebaker automobiles, including the first home-owned "Six" had arrived, a good share of the population went down to help C. G. Allen, the consignee, unload them.

The arrival of the Studebaker "Six" will be remembered for some time in Grant's Pass. And the memory will be a combined thrill and giggle, for Mr. Allen made the most of his opportunity to pull off a little prearranged program and to meet an unexpected emergency with quick wit and self-possession.

While his fellow citizens clustered around, the "Six" was rolled triumphantly down an improvised skidway. Gasoline and oil were turned into the tanks and the electric starter did its work. With a cargo of prospective buyers, Mr. Allen went through the gears and dashed away, telling the crowd that he would meet them down town in half an hour.

After gaily climbing the steepest grades they could find—and grades are easier to find than level ground in that neighborhood—Mr. Allen coursed swiftly back down the main street. There, to the amazement of all beholders, he slowed the car down, opened the door and dismounted, calling attention the the fact that the car was still traveling on high gear.

For a moment the passengers showed signs of panic but Mr. Allen reassured them they were perfectly safe in a driverless car, provided the car was a Studebaker. He then walked along beside the car, calling attention in a few well chosen words to the full floating rear axle, the elaborate equipment, and other details of the "Six."

At "four-corners" he changed the steering adjustment so that the car ran in a circle while he officiated as ring master, demonstrating the irreversible steering.

A competitor here tried to gum the proceedings by calling upon the police to protect bystanders. Mr. Allen smilingly informed the marshal that there was no danger and, to prove it, removed one of the passengers and let the cop ride.

That night Mr. Allen wired for another carload of "Sixes." Grant's Pass has gone wild over its first chance at multiple cylinders.

Blobbs—"What I like about Talkalot is that he has such an open countenance." Slobbs—"I should say he has. You can't shut him up."

The finance committee met at the building on Wednesday evening, and made definite plans for the financial campaign for current help.

The board of directors met on Friday evening and heard the report of the finance committee and decided definitely to begin the campaign for current assistance on April 13.

Fully one hundred persons attended the shop meeting at Heisey's on Thursday noon. The cutters attended in a body. A. B. Cox spoke, and Mrs. J. C. Bonshire and Irene Bonshire assisted with the music.

A banquet was held Saturday evening, March 28 for the boys making highest scores in the membership contest. Nine boys attended, and Mr. C. C. Metz, president of the board of directors presided. After the banquet Mr. Metz gave the boys an interesting talk on 'Energy and Control."

An all day hike was held Wednesday, April 1st by thirty Junior boys. In spite of the fact that they were caught in a heavy rain storm, all had a good time. After the hike the boys stopped at the Association building for a swim in the tank.

The ground was broken for a third tennis court at the corner of Second and Locust streets. A small fee will be charged for the use of these courts this year to defray expenses of the upkeep. The Y. W. C. A. as well as the Y. M. C. A. will have privilege of the use of these courts.

Last Monday morning, a team of Intermediate gym boys played a game of basket ball with a Boy Scout team of the city. The "Y" team players won: C. Hertel, C. Meyer, A. Chesley, Clarence Hertel and R. Frenier. The Boy Scouts were: E. Davies, J. Fuller, W. Ditter, C. Brown, W. Patter, C. Hess, H. Woltgen and F. Taefel. The score was 59 to 9 in favor of the "Y" team. Referee, G. Wiley.

WANT FRANCE TO BE REPRESENTED AT EXPOSITION

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Limoges, France, April 4.—The Limoges chamber of commerce which has been actively opposing official French participation in the Panama-Pacific exposition owing to the undervaluation suits brought by the American treasury department, has now changed its mind. It sent today to the ministry of commerce and to the foreign office a letter expressing the hope that the French parliament would vote an appropriation for French representation at San Francisco and urging that the question should not be delayed or obscured by the Limoges controversy. The chamber of commerce points out that five Franch exporting houses have already obtained recognition from the United States government of the justice of their contentions, and that others are convinced that they will be treated with consideration.

Interest Earnings

Are too often esteemed as the only important feature of an investment.

As a matter of fact, the rate of interest should be the last thing considered.

Of course every man wishes his money to earn a fair return, and the four per cent we pay IS a liberal return when coupled with the Complete Safety and the prompt Cashability of money deposited here.

You save money to provide for emergencies, and if you cannot get it when you need it, half the value of saving is gone.

Likewise, lacking safety, any investment is a source of worry instead of satisfaction.

THESE BOYS WILL THINK TWICE WHEN THROWING STONES

Following investigations made by the department of public service and the juvenile court, two boys, one residing in Ash street and another in Penney avenue, will think twice in the future before throwing stones at the globes of the electric street lamps.

A globe at Ash and Buckingham streets was broken by a stone thrown by a Young American more destructive than wise. Juvenile Officer Dwyer ordered the lad to appear at the service director's office and pay for the damage, under penalty of arrest and prosecution.

Friday afternoon Chief Sheridan brought a Penney avenue boy to Service Director Christian where he paid for the destruction of a new Tungsten lamp which was put up near his home a few days ago. Both boys promised to find other targets for their stones in the future.

AUTO SHOW WILL CLOSE WITH BANG

RUSH OF BUSINESS MADE IT IMPOSSIBLE TO EXHIBIT A NEWARK-MADE TRUCK.

W. J. Eade, Promoter, Highly Gratified With the Results and the Prospects for Next Show.

"A great success in every particular, and I am most highly gratified at the results of Newark's first automobile show," was the enthusiastic comment of the promoter, Mr. W. J. Eade, Saturday. Continuing, he said: "In looking over the past week and the previous arrangements for the exhibition, I have only one regret, and that is that it was impossible to have a Blair truck, with a 'Made-in-Newark' sign on it, at the head of the procession. That had been my idea, but the disappointment has its compensation in the reason that made it impossible to carry out the plan. When I took the matter up with Mr. J. P. McCune, of the Blair company, he stated that nothing would give him more pleasure than to show the product at the Arcade exposition, but that the company was so far behind in orders and could not spare a truck nor get one ready in time to get it into the Arcade exhibit.

"I am glad to state that while competition has been keen among dealers, resulting in many sales of cars, no serious friction has been prevalent to mar the spirit of the exhibition. Every dealer is satisfied, as far as I can learn, that he has been treated fairly in every way, and this feeling is manifest by the expressed intention of again taking a part in the next show.

"My firm belief is that such expositions go far toward developing a right spirit among citizens toward Newark, and any line of industry represented, which is proper and healthful. It can be safely said that the auto show this week agurs well for the next one."

The show will close tonight "with a bang," and there is no doubt but that the crowds in the Arcade will be enormous. Stores opening into this space have made arrangements to care for a big increase in business, and the dealers will take their show cars back to their garages, to again take up the regular line of the business, which has received a mighty impulse from the exhibition.

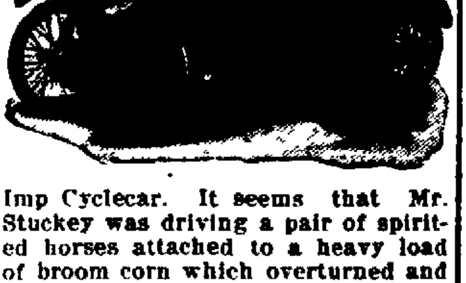
$50 COUPON ON IMP CAR CONTEST PRIZE

This prize in the Advocate Booklovers' contest is attracting much attention as the Imp Cycle car is creating a great sensation. If the winner does not wish to purchase an Imp car F. E. Riegger, the distributing agent, will pay $25.00 in cash for the coupon.

Mr Riegger is also agent for the Regal and Mercer cars. He has a fine display of them all at the Auto show in the Arcade. The following letter was received by Mr. Reigger today:

To Our Imp Dealers:—

William Stuckey, a well known farmer of South Hydraulic avenue, Wichita, Kans., according to the Wichita Eagle, owes his life to the Imp Cyclecar. It seems that Mr. Stuckey was driving a pair of spirited horses attached to a heavy load of broom corn which overturned and buried Mr. Stuckey beneath it, breaking a shoulder and collar bone and badly smothering him. In the smashup the only telephone system was put out of business by the overturning of the wagon so that a doctor could not be summoned. Stuckey was put into the cyclecar and whizzed to his home, after which the cyclecar sped for a doctor and returning to the Stuckey home with the physician just in time to save his life. The same celerity of speed and action over the rough country road could not have been made with a heavy powered touring car.



Respectfully,
W. H. McINTYRE CO.

Let the People Rule

Lest solicitous Republican editors should imagine that the people do not rule, their attention is directed to the recent meeting at Cleveland, called for the purpose of providing their party with candidates for governor and United States senator. There were present Daniel R Hanna, Chairman Harry M. Daugherty, of the state executive committee; W. L. Parmenter, chairman of the state central committee; W. H. Miller, of the Ohio Equity association; David Mead Massie, of Chillicothe: Arthur I. Vorys, Mr. Taft's campaign manager and Mr. N. H. Fairbanks, brother of former Vice President Fairbanks, a member of the state central committee. These gentlemen directed Congressman Frank B. Willis, of Ada, to cease his efforts to become the Republican nominee for governor and instructed him to run for senator, assuring him that neither Senator Barton nor former Senator Foraker would be permitted to annoy him while the nomination was being secured for him. His place as a candidate for governor was to be assumed by Mr. Massie, who was on hand to take charge on the spot. Not knowing that the people do rule, Mr. Willis was ungracious enough to refuse to decline the proffered instructions. It is sad to be required to chronicle the fact that on the following evening all of these gentlemen were denounced by C. L. Knight of Akron, at a "get together" dinner at Lorain, as a parcel of impudent bosses, his hearers being urged to rise up and disown them.

It would seem that this coterie of bosses, accepting Mr. Knight's characterization of them, are engaged in saving the Republican party—for themselves!

Why the Galled Jade Winces

There are 400,000 people in Cincinnati. Of this number only 21,000 pay taxes on personal property—or did. There are 31,000 who pay on real estate. It is reasonably certain that some of those who pay on realty also pay on personalty, so that the total number of taxpayers in that city is about 50,000, or one in every eight. This proportion, it may be assumed, obtains in virtually all of the larger centers of population. In the rural districts the rule may be said to be reversed. Sparsely settled, the assessor encounters every individual. The Warnes law is designed, not to get more property on the duplicate from those already paying, but to place on the list those who have been paying nothing to keep up the government and the schools.

Each succeeding report to the State Tax Commission shows that the assessors, freed from local influence, are ferreting out daily hundreds of individuals who have for years been escaping their just burdens. Millionaire Kuntz, in Dayton, is a practical illustration. He never paid a cent of personal taxes in the past, but the assessors this year put him on for $547,000. In Cincinnati, Mayor Spiegel, confronted by the lack of funds, proposed to issue $248,000 of deficiency bonds. If the 350,000 tax escaping citizens would pay $1 each, the deficit would be met and there would be a surplus of $100,000 in the treasury.

This being true, why should there be an outcry against a law that is the essence of justice? Adam Smith, in his "Wealth of Nations," declared that it was the duty of every citizen to support the government to the extent of the amount of the benefits he received from it. Here is a case in which seven-eighths of a large community have been paying no taxes, but deliberately permitting the remaining eighth to provide every penny of the governmental expenses.

The just taxes when received will go into the state treasury only in part. One-half of one mill will be levied for the building of good roads, and the rest will be paid into the state common school fund and be distributed back to the counties in proportion to the number of children of school age in each county. Part will be retained for university and state normal school purposes. The figures from Cincinnati show that in the townships outside the proportion of personal taxpayers is higher. Therefore the effect of making the delinquent residents of Cincinnati come forward will be to relieve the rural population of Hamilton county of some of the taxes now paid by them. This will be the case in every county of the state. The logic is absolutely incontrovertible. It is the galled jade that winces, and it is the legal and reasonable demand of the Warnes law assessors that tax defaulters shall meet their lawful obligations to the community that is causing the squealing to arise.

Who can or will defend a system that reaches only 21,000 people out of 400,000?

A Worthy Cause.

The effort which the state of Ohio, through its Commission for the Blind, in co-operation with public-spirited merchants and newspapers, is making to aid blind women who are working in their own homes, is unique and well worthy of commendation.

For the first time in the history of the world, a state, business houses and the press have joined hands in a campaign to help the blind to help themselves. The excellence of the workmanship of the articles made by Ohio's blind women, as evidenced by the exhibition which is being held this week at Mazey's store, in space kindly donated by the company, commands the attention of everyone.

As our readers have been informed the state provides the material and instruction for this home work, and by the above-mentioned co-operation, citizens of Newark are invited to give these worthy blind workers, not a charitable dole, but an opportunity to do their part in the battle of life.

The Advocate is glad to participate in this interesting and humanitarian endeavor to aid the handicapped of Ohio, and we hope that many of our readers will rally to this call of the blind to patronize their handiwork and thus give them remunerative and happy employment.

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

It's Granmother's recipe to bring back color, thickness and lustre—Everybody is using it again.

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advanced age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the tonic at home or get from any drug store a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully and removes dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair; besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger. GOVERNOR COX DOING DUTY IN REFORMS

Elyria, April 4.—Governor James M. Cox, delivering an address at the Jefferson Day banquet of Lorain county Democrats here, defended the more important legislative measures that have marked the progress of his administration and specified negatively his conception of what the executive of the state ought to be.

"If it is your wish to install a policy of pussyfooting in the governor's office," said Mr. Cox, "if you desire a man in that station who is disposed to plow around every question, no matter how vital it is, but which might be troublesome, then you must elect another man."

The governor said that all knew that there had been official evasions of vexatious problems in public life, and that he recognized when he undertook to work out better conditions in the state he was taking up questions which meant temporary confusion. He referred in this regard to the tax system, workingmen's compensation, school legislation and liquor licensing.

John H. Clarke of Cleveland, candidate for the Democratic senatorial nomination, delivered an address. He took up national issues and upheld the policy of President Wilson in the matter of the repeal of the Panama Canal tolls exemption measure.

Mr. Horse.

The good old horse, of sterling worth, has not yet fallen off the earth. I notice by the public prints that steeds of all the standard tints, strawberry roan, claybank and bay, buff cochin, black and dappled gray bring just as much as horses brung before your motor cars were sprung. When something new has come to pass, some engine-driven thing of brass, some cart that eats up gasoline instead of browsing on the green, the prophets say, "This spells the end of Dobbin, man's old trusty friend! This gives the last, the final jolt, to every gelding, mare and colt! The equine tribe might just as well sit quiet while we toll its knell. For traveling, the motor car, than any horse is better far; and when it comes to heavy freight the motor truck can hit the gait; so there's no place on earth, indeed, for any bald-faced sorrel steed.' And yet the steeds refuse to creep, heart-broken, to the rubbish heap. Their heads and tails are high in air, and they are wanted everywhere. They caper, beautiful and nice, commanding such a gorgeous price bologna makers can't afford to purchase samples from the horde.

THOUSANDS OF NAMES ADDED TO TAX LISTS

Columbus, April 4.—Figures designed to show that the Warnes law was enacted to catch those who have not been paying taxes, and not to compel the people who have been making adequate returns to pay more, were given out by the tax commission yesterday.

In Cincinnati, where 400,000 people reside and only 50,000 returns were made in 1913 under the old plan, a total of 10,443 personal property returns have been received, and 5060 of these are persons who were missed in prior years and are going to pay taxes now for the first time. The returns of these aggregate $2,000,000.

The tax commission says that the effect of making these 5000 delinquents come forward with a valuation of $2,000,000 will be to relieve those who have been making adequate valuations.

In Hamilton county 14,085 personal property returns have been received to date and of these 6529 are from persons who were never on the duplicate. These new returns total $3,000,000 and if the persons making them had been overlooked the property owners not so lucky would have paid the taxes due on that valuation. An increase of $7,000,000 in personal property has been reported from this county and the work has just started.

The same result will be achieved in nearly every taxing district in the state, according to scattering reports received by the tax commission. Real estate will profit for the values on this property were, with few exceptions, adequate in 1913, and remain stationary in all 1914 reports received.

The little miss is really wonderful at the pano, and her performances are not only remarkable from the standpoint of execution, but what she plays is for the greater part improvisations from a musical comprehension and memory, that baffles any attempt at explanation from any mental philosophy. The phenomenon is present and appreciated by the child's mother who is herself a thorough musician, and entirely competent to give this genius intelligent direction.

FALL

northwest of San Luis Potosi. The federal generals Mourse and Hidalgo are said to have 20 or 30 field guns and a large supply of ammunition. General Hidalgo is believed to be at Saltillo, but hopes to join General Mourse east of Torreon. If the rebel troops capture all the guns which were in possession of General Velasco, military men declare that they now have a majority of the field pieces in the republic. Should the equipment of Generals Mourse and Hidalgo be added to this, their position will be greatly superior to that of the forces commanded by provisional President Huerta.

BURN BODIES OF THE DEAD AT TORREON

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Torreon, Mex., April 4.—(Via El Paso)—This city, from which General Refugio Velasco and most of the uninjured of his command fled yesterday was occupied by the rebels in force today and the work of burning the bodies of the dead, clearing away the wreckage of shell shattered adobe walls, street barricades and barbed wire entanglements was begun.

When Villa took a considerable number of prisoners Velasco escaped from the canyon de Huarache with a considerable portion of his force. He was pursued last night by General Hernandez, who today reported that he had fought a small rear guard engagement with the retreating force and later General Villa with reinforcements left here to make an attempt to capture or annihilate it.

Non-combatants here with whom the Associated Press correspondent talked today estimated Velasco's garrison did not number more than five thousand men, of whom 1,500 were killed or wounded.

When Velasco fled he left behind in the military hospital two hundred wounded.

When the rebels entered the place they found only one nurse, Dorothea de la Cruz, in attendance. She said that the other nurses followed the army.

The patients were in a high state of anxiety for they had been told that Villa took no prisoners. They were reassured by H. S. Cunard Cummins, the British vice-council at Gomez Palacio, who entered the hospital, first climbing over bodies of the wounded who had died there. The air was foul with the odor of dried blood. The British official announced that Villa had assured him none of the wounded would be harmed. Those who had the strength raised themselves on their elbow from pallets on the floor and from their cots cried a feeble "Viva Villa."

The nurse was soothing a dying patient who with his last breath joined the cheering and then sank back, dead.

Persons who say they were eye witnesses declare that Velasco summarily executed three Spaniards whom he accused of firing on his troops. The wife of one of these, Lotero Lopez, attempted to shield her husband and the same bullet killed both.

Three hundred and fifty Spaniards, including women and children took refuge in a bank building under the protection of American Consul Ulmer who remained in town throughout the battle. The insurgents have shown no disposition to harm those Spaniards who are known to have remained neutral. Other foreigners, including 55 Chinese, Syrians and Austrians and 100 Americans were unharmed so far as could be learned today.

Two federal generals were killed and three wounded.

It is said here that Velasco's retreat was brought about by his losses in the night assaults made by the rebels and that his soldiers, worn out by prolonged fighting and fearful of the cruelties which they were told Villa practiced on the wounded prisoners were on the verge of mutiny.

In the course of house-to-house fighting rebels and federals frequently came within talking distance of each other and in some cases got on such friendly terms that they ceased firing entirely. In these cases the federals were persuaded to remain when Velasco retreated and they will be enrolled under the rebel banner.

At least a fortnight and probably a longer period will be required to organize the army before the expected campaign against Saltillo and Monterey can be made.

Rebel leaders are awaiting news of the political effect of their victory on Mexico City and Washington. The federal artillery was superior to that of the rebels, many of whose shells proved defective.

Villa was the very soul of the battle. His spirit animated everything. When things were going wrong he would gallop along the battle line encouraging or reprimanding as the individual case required.

"Well done," he said to the gunners whose shell had fallen true. "Men like you will redeem Mexico," he complimented a wounded man who remained in the firing line.

"What, boy, do you find the dancing floor too rough?" he chided a soldier who, on some pretext was making for the rear.

Villa was in his headquarters at Gomez Palacia Thursday night when Torreon fell.

OFFICIAL MESSAGE FROM THE AMERICAN CONSULAR AGENT

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, April 4.—One official message today from Consular Agent Carothers at Torreon, reported the rebel loss in killed and wounded about that city was 1200. No estimate was made of federal losses. The messages, it was said, at the state department, was the only official one received from Torreon since Carothers yesterday confirmed the capture of the city by Villa.

Rear Admiral Fletcher reported there were no developments at Tampico. The Mexican embassy was without news from Mexico City.

FEDERALS CAN'T INTERFERE WITH PIRATE PLAYERS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Hot Springs, Ark., April 4.—Holding that contracts between baseball players and clubowners may lack mutuality but was not a question to be raised by a third party chancellor J. P. Henderson today made permanent the injunction preventing Federal league agents from interfering with players of the Pittsburg National League club.

The injunction was brought against H. Camnitz, agent of the Pittsburg Federal League club.

McQuillen and Viox, members of the Pittsburg Nationals, testified that Camnitz had made offers to them to join the federals. The contract between these two players and the Pittsburg National Club minus the salary figures were offered as evidence in the hearing together with a copy of the agreement between National League clubs.

Counsel for Camnitz contended that the contracts and the agreement are in violation of both state and federal anti-trust laws.

BAD OPERATION AVOIDED

By Timely Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Sowers' Own Statement.

Hodgdon, Maine.—"I feel it a duty I owe to all suffering women to tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. One year ago I found myself a terrible sufferer. I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached, I had no appetite and was so nervous I could not sleep, then I would be so tired mornings that I could scarcely get around. It seemed almost impossible to move or do a bit of work and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman. I had no pains, slept well, had good appetite and could do almost all my own work for a family of four. I shall always feel that I owe my good health to your medicine."—Mrs. HAYWARD SOWERS, Hodgdon, Maine.

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

DENISON HAS A HIGH RANKING IN ASSOCIATION

Granville, April 4.—Denison university has been given a high position in the annual ranking of the National Central Association of Colleges. Seventy-three colleges comprise the membership of this organization. Denison has been ranked twenty-third. Colleges are represented in the association from the following states: Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Nebraska, Kansas, Colorado, Oklahoma, South Dakota, North Dakota and Kentucky.

Quite a number of Granville people attended the theatre in Newark last evening to witness "The Lady of the Slipper."

The Adytum for this year is now in the hands of the printer and is expected to be on sale by the middle of May. Seven hundred will be printed this year, which is an increase of two hundred over last year's publication.

As the result of bets wagered by a number of Doane academy and Denison students at the Cicero-Irving debate last Wednesday evening, many curious scenes were enacted on the university campus. One young man appeared the morning after the debate attired in a pair of short trousers. In the afternoon, ten minutes before the start of 1:30 classes, a youth was seen standing in front of Doane academy, vigorously fanning the lampost as if the electric light wires had been crossed in the post and he was afraid the iron would be consumed by the heat. Another strange bet was to wear a bath robe to class in the afternoon. The loser was game however and carried out the details as agreed, much to the amusement of a large crowd of laughing classmates.

Work is progressing rapidly on "The Mikado," an opera which will be given in the near future by the members of the two musical societies of Denison. Walter J. Livingston will sing and will play the role of the Mikado.

"THERE IS BUT ONE FAIR AND HONEST WAY"

To Determine the MERIT of a Ready-to-take Medicine

No one can speak positively of the worth of any medicine until he has tried it. Not tried it on others, but tried it on himself. Any one who has been afflicted with a chronic ailment and experienced relief from some remedy, he and only he can give testimony that is worth anything concerning the remedy.

The people who have taken Peruna know what Peruna is. The people who have read about Peruna or heard about Peruna, have a more or less imperfect knowledge of it. The true test, the only fair and honest way, is to try it. Read the remarks below, made by people who know Peruna. If you are interested, send to us for the "Ills of Life," full of similar testimonials from honest men and women all over the United States.

Mrs. A. E. Stouffer, R. R. 1, Sabetha, Kas.: "Peruna has given me health and strength; it is the best medicine that was ever made for women. My friends say they never saw such a change in a woman. I talk to every one about Peruna. I cannot say too much for it."

Mr. Isaac Horrenga, Fremont, Mich., writes: "I was taken sick last spring, unable to work for three months and a half. My weight was reduced to 135 pounds. At last I was advised to use PERUNA. I have now gained my usual weight. PERUNA gave me a splendid appetite. I feel strong."

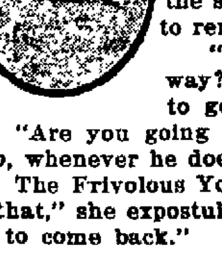
Miss Marie A. Lesser, No. 922 36th St., Chicago, Illinois. "I was troubled with systemic catarrh for years. The catarrh had got all through my system, head, throat, stomach and other internal organs. Tried many remedies. Did no good. Took Peruna at the suggestion of a friend. Was surprised at results. I am now perfectly well and strong. That weak, tired feeling has left me."

Mrs. Alvina Plamann, No. 2025 Elm St., Milwaukee, Wis. "I am now able to do my housework again, and have a good appetite. Peruna did it for me. We always keep Peruna in the house. We all use it, my husband and children. I thank you a thousand times for your advice."

LITTLE DISCUSSIONS OF LOVE AND MARRIAGE

BY BARBARA BOYD

The Husband Who Bullies.



"I had a letter from Hugh the other day," sighed the Frivolous Young Thing, "and he says if I don't come back, he'll go straight to the Devil, and he spelled it with a capital D, too. What would you do?"

"I'd tell him that though the going might be pleasant, the stay wouldn't be so delightful, for he'd probably have to remain a mighty long time," advised the Friend.

"But don't you think it is horrid of him to put it that way?" sighed the Frivolous Young Thing. "I don't want to go home yet."

"Are you going to let him hold His Satanic Majesty over you as a club, whenever he doesn't want you to do anything?" asked the Friend.

The Frivolous Young Thing opened wide her eyes. "But he wouldn't do that," she expostulated. "This is just because I am away and he wants me to come back."

"Yes, and when you are back and he doesn't want you to do something, he'll again haul forth his majesty with the cloven hoofs and flourish him as a boon companion."

"Do you think so?" asked the Frivolous Young Thing.

"I most certainly do. That is evidently his method of coercing you to do his wishes. I think I would call it the bullying method. Do you want to be ruled that way?"

"No," admitted the Frivolous Young Thing.

"It's something like the man who says if you don't marry him he'll commit suicide. I do not call such methods of getting one's way exactly manly, do you?"

"N—no," again admitted the Frivolous Young Thing. "I did think it rather mean of Hugh to say what he did. For I don't want to go home yet."

"It's queer, isn't it," said the Friend, "that grown folks will still be childish. If there is a good reason for your going home, why not get down to it. Why not discuss it amicably, and then wherever the right is proven to be, let the other acknowledge it and yield. But this method is simply saying, 'If you won't do as I want you to, I won't play.' And so whichever one yields, does it with the sense of a grievance. He doesn't feel he has been treated fairly."

"I think I'll write and put it to Hugh that way," hopefully suggested the Frivolous Young Thing.

"Do," advised the Friend. "It may give him the shock of his life. Or," she mused, "it may waken something better in him than he himself really glimpses is there. The desire for the companionship of his satanic majesty may lose all zest. I think I would try the experiment."

"I will," said the Frivolous Young Thing, seeing in her mind's eye the perfectly lovely letter she was going to write.

FRED STONE TO MAKE LONG TRIP TO SEE FAMILY

Fred Stone is homesick to see his family and he is going to see his wife and little ones Sunday even if it is somewhat inconvenient. Mr. Stone and the members of "The Lady of the Slipper" company, which played at the Auditorium last evening, left Newark Saturday afternoon for Springfield where a performance will be given this evening. Immediately after the show Mr. Stone will board a special interurban car which will be in waiting and take him on a flying trip to Columbus where he will catch the fast Pennsylvania flyer for Philadelphia, arriving there at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. He will remain with his family until 10 o'clock in the evening when he will take a train for Dayton, O., where the company plays Monday evening.

BODY TAKEN TO ZANESVILLE FOR BURIAL SUNDAY

The body of Charles Styers, 25, who was killed west of the city Wednesday night, was taken to Zanesville Friday where interment will take place Sunday, according to arrangements announced by the young man's father, also Charles Styers, who came to Newark to take charge of the body. The father completed the identification made by Coroner Wiyiarch. Styers was killed, presumably by an interurban car west of the city sometime between 8:30 and 11 o'clock Wednesday night. His body was found about 11 o'clock by the crew of an interurban car and brought to Newark.

MUST REPORT CHICKENPOX TO OFFICIALS

Following difficulties encountered in the last week regarding the location of cases of chickenpox, Mayor Bigbee and Health Officer Knauss held a conference Saturday and issued a statement that in the future, all cases of chickenpox, however mild, and regardless of whether a physician is summoned or not, must be reported to the health department as provided by law. These reports must be made by the attending physician where one is called or by heads of families if a physician is not in attendance.

"We propose to prosecute vigorously any failure to comply with this order," said Dr. Knauss Saturday morning following the conference.

It is claimed that the difficulty in distinguishing chickenpox from a mild case of smallpox is one of the reasons for the determination to have all cases reported.

Smallpox has been prevalent in every county contiguous to Licking and the local health authorities do not propose that the disease shall gain a foothold in Newark.

WILL ASK COUNCIL TO CLOSE SALOONS AT 10:30 O'CLOCK

A petition has been forwarded to the city council by many of the church brotherhoods of the city, requesting that council pass an ordinance fixing the closing hour of saloons at 10:30 p. m. The petition includes resolutions adopted by the brotherhoods and the result of the vote taken at recent meetings. It is claimed there were four opposing votes, all these coming from one church. According to information gained, it is the sentiment of most of the members of council to adopt a "hands-off" policy in regard to the matter. As far as could be learned no ordinance or resolution has been prepared for introduction, carrying out the request made in the petition.

Candidate For Congress.

To the Voters of Licking Co.

I am a candiate for the Democratic nomination for Congress in the 17th Congressional district to be decided at the August primary. Your vote and influence are solicited. CURTIS E McBRIDE. Adv. 3-14dtf

Chicago Grain Situation.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Chicago, April 4.—Favorable weather drew traders to the selling side of the wheat market today and pulled down prices. Dispatches from Texas said conditions pointed to a bumper crop, and there were advices almost equally flattering from other states. Commission orders, however, to buy at a decline checked the bears. Opening figures which were a shade to ¼ lower, were followed by a moderate further setback.

Selling on the part of leading houses weakened corn. Pit demand was only of a scattered sort. Prices started [illegible] to ⅜ lower and after a slight rally, turned again down grade.

Oats eased off with other grain. Business was light

In provisions, heaviness developed owing to lack of support. After opening 5c lower to 2½c up, the market sagged all around.

GAS QUESTION MAY BE SOLVED MONDAY NIGHT

As a result of a caucus meeting of the city council held a few days ago, when the gas situation was discussed and when a representative of the gas company was present, it is claimed that action will be taken Monday night looking towards the settlement of the controversy between the gas company and the city. It is said that a new rate has been agreed upon of 25 cents per thousand feet, with no discount in 10 days as has been given in the past. Councilmen would have little to say regarding the caucus.

It is claimed that the council will agree to leave the fund now in the hands of the receiver, to the disposition of the court.

SOMERSET WILL HEAD THE LIST IN TAX GAINS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Columbus, April 4.—That Somerset, Perry county, with its 1286 population has been placed at the head of the list of communities making the largest gain in assessment of personal property for taxation was announced by the state tax commission today. A statement given out by the tax commission today says:

"The deputy assessor who listed property in Somerset, having 1286 population, has been placed at the head of the class by the state tax commission. Here is what he did: 1913 valuation of personal property $203,160; 1914 valuation $313,090, an increase of $109,930, a gain of 54 11.10 per cent. District Assessor Cullinan of Perry county, says he is willing to wager a box of cigars that this work will not be equalled in the state of Ohio. Cullinan reports that in the same county, Reading township, in which Somerset is located, so far has gained $47,385; Jackson township, incomplete, $57,540; Thorn township, incomplete, $46,980; Shawnee village, incomplete, $40,545; Pike township, incomplete, $34,035.

"Every taxing district is showing a creditable gain, and these gains are exclusive of oil returns and we believe Perry county will be in the front row of urban counties when the final returns are made known," says Cullinan.

"In Shelby, Richland county, the personal property increase is $250,000 over last year, and the people there are organizing to see that the tax rate is kept down. Deputy Assessors May and Mott, who listed the property in Shelby, state that their task was an easy one because the property owners listed their assets readily with the idea in view of compelling the rate makers to keep the taxes down."

As an actress, Mrs. Greenfield made her debut in this city in 1876 as Camille, in the production of that name. During her career she supported many noted actors of the "old school" and at one time made a tour of the United States in "Only a Farmer's Daughter."

CURES BARBERS ITCH PROMPTLY

When All Else Fails Goodhair Soap Cures Barbers' Itch.

"Will you kindly send me a cake of your celebrated "Goodhair" soap, for which I am enclosing 25 cents in stamps Have been sending to Dayton for the soap, as I have been unable to locate your products in any store in this city, and cannot do without it at any cost. I spent about $100.00 several years ago, trying to remedy "barber's itch." Finally, as a last resort, I was persuaded to use your soap, which brought immediate results, at the small price thereof. Have recommended "Goodhair" to all my friends as "best ever" for shampoo and other skin diseases, but they also seemed to be unable to secure it here. Just gave the last cake away today to a friend, one of the many unfortunates who could not locate the product."

Yours respectfully,

SUSTAINING COMMUNITY STANDARDS

The church is a civilizing force, worthy the help of everyone

A great many people who could help in church work are neglecting the opportunity.

Naturally some, already associated in church work, are not doing their best to promote a general uplift.

That some one else neglects his work is no reason or excuse why YOU should neglect it.

Church affiliation is something that appeals to everyone who desires to help in community advancement.

It is better to help in this work than to shirk if others are trying to do it in what we consider the wrong way—it is our fault if we neglect suggesting the right way.

The question naturally arises, how can we make the church of more vital force in the community?

The question that appeals to each individual is, how can I help in making this community better; how can I stimulate interest in that which insures a more desirable town in which to own a home, bring up a family or conduct a business?

After all is said and done, conducting a business in a town where most people have a keen appreciation for church work and church affiliation is easier and more satisfactory, because credits are better there, and living there is more desirable.

Every one has the same interest in church affiliation and in doing all that is possible to bring others under the influence of church life and church service.

There are enough denominations represented in Newark to insure your finding one whose creeds and principles will suit your peculiar understanding of human needs and divine assistance.

There is no real reason why each individual in Newark should not be affiliated with some church of this city.

There is no reason why each should not be lending influence and advice in this great cause.

The church announcements printed herewith are suggestive.

Each individual can find just the place that best suits ethically and ecclesiastically. Each can find what is needed and where best the energies of life can be expended for community advancement. Start now.

The Scheme of Redemption

NO. 1

BY J. D. MONTGOMERY.

Before the World Was.

Things were not always as they are today. This beautiful earth did not always exist. It had a beginning, and consequently there was a time "or ever the world was" what lay beyond that beginning? When and how was the earth brought into existence, and what were the events clustered about creation? Was anyone there to see it done? Are there any eyewitnesses? if so what is their testimony?

The testimony of Wisdom: "I Wisdom.... Jehovah possessed me in the beginning of His ways, before His works of old; I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was.... while as yet He had not made the earth....when He prepared the heavens I was there ....when He established the clouds above....when He appointed the foundations of the earth. Then I (Wisdom) was by Him (Jehovah) as One brought up with Him, and I was daily His delight, rejoicing always before Him." Prov. 8th chapter. The 8th chapter of Proverbs is a vivid picture of that eternal Father. Wisdom is the Son of God.

The Counsels of Eternity.

Imagine the eternal scene. The Son rejoicing always before the Father and the "counsel of peace" was "between them both." Nothing to mar the scene. Nothing to cause regret nor sorrow of heart. Sin had not yet raised its head.

The habitations of God are indescribable: Angels, cherubim and seraphim did his bidding. Michael, the arch-angel, (the original name of Christ)" as One brought up with Him," delighting daily in His presence. Lucifer, Son of the Morning, second in command of the armies of heaven, was a mighty one before God. He stood at the side of the throne, a covering cherub, hovering over the Majesty of heaven. All was well. The universe of God was clean and at peace.

The Birth of Evil.

Lucifer stood high in the affairs of heaven. He was subject only to the beloved Son of God himself. He became somewhat proud and lifted up because of his brightness and his wisdom. He enjoyed the reverence of the heavenly host. He felt himself highly exalted because of his great worth. He was standing on the verge of [illegible] He was about to give birth to a strange new element in the universe. He was about to bring forth evil. It came to pass that a conference was held in heaven to which Lucifer was not invited. The Father conferred with the Son. They were about to bring into being a new planet, the earth. New creatures were to be formed. "Let us make man in our own image and give him dominion over the earth" was the decision of this council. Lucifer was beginning to sulk. Envy was begotten in his heart. Rebellion against the government of heaven quickly developed. The disaffection spread to many of the heavenly beings. There was war in heaven. "Michael (Christ) and his angels fought against the dragon (formerly Licifer); and the dragon fought and his angels, and prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven. And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent. called the devil and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world, he was cast out into the earth and his angels were cast out with him." Revelation 12:7-9. These were the "angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation" for follow a disaffected leader. (See Judge 1:6). Thus was the birth of evil.

Lucifer the Light Bearer.

An inspired account of Lucifer who afterward became Satan the deceiver of the whole world, is as follows: "Thou sealest up the sun, full of wisdom. perfect in beauty. Thou hast been in Eden, the garden of God; every precious stone was thy covering.... the workmanship of thy tabrets and thy pipes was prepared in thee in the day that thou wast created. Thou art the annointing cherub that covereth, and I have set thee so: thou wast upon the holy mountain of God; thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire. Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day thou wast created,—still iniquity was found in thee." How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground that did weaken the nations! For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God; I will sit upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north: I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the Most High!" See Ezekiel 28:13-15 and Isaiah 14:12-14. This same individual entered the garden of Eden in the form of a serpent and seduced our first parents from their allegiance to God their Maker, and opened up the necessity for the plan and salvation so often preached from the pulpits of christiandom.

The Making of the World.

The Father and the Son planned the world. Together they planned its shape, its inhabitants and its use. Together they decided which of them should be its creator. The plans and specifications were all laid "while as yet there were none of them". Its form was to be a 'circle' or sphere. (See Isa. 40:22) "He that sitteth on the circle of the earth" says Wisdom: "When He prepared the heavens I was there: when He set a circle upon the face of the deep." Prov. 8:27 Marginal reading. Its inhabitants are to be called Man: "Let us make man." It was to be given to mankind: "Let them have dominion over all the earth." Gen. 1:28. The earth was made to be inhabited. "He hath established it; He created it not in vain, He formed it to be inhabited." Isa. 45:18. Its destiny is to remain forever. "It standeth fast forever" but not in its present condition. Thus the plans were laid and carried out. "In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth" says the first verse in the Bible. In the beginning was the Word (Christ) and the Word was with God (the Father) and the Word was God (the Son). All things were made by Him (the Son) and without Him was not anything made that was made....He was in the world and the world was made by Him but the world knew Him not....The Word was made flesh and dwelt among....full of grace and truth." John 1:1-14. "By the Word of the Lord were the heavens made and all the host of them by the breath of His mouth....For He spake and it was: He commanded and it stood fast." Psalms 33:6-9. The eternal Son of God was the Agent in the creation of the world. It was he who spake and was. It was he who called out the host of heaven "by number." It is still the Son of God by whose word all created things "consist" or hold together. "By Him were all things created, that are in heaven, that are in heaven and that are in earth, visible and invisible....all things were created by Him and for Him, and he is before all things and by Him all things consist." Collossians 1:16-17. The Son of God was the Creator. He who was afterwards called upon to be the Redeemer of the race was the great Architect of the universe.

The Creation of Man.

"Let us make man in our own image and after our likeness" had been one item of the counsel of peace between the Father and the Son in the courts of heaven. It was determined how man was to be made; after what image and likeness. He was to be like his Maker: "In the image of God made He them." The human body was to be fearfully and wonderfully made, and the specifications were written in the books of heaven before the work was done. "My substance was not hid from Thee when I was made in secret and curiously wrought. Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being imperfect and in Thy book were all my members written when as yet there was none of them." Psalms 139:16. After the details were all worked out by the divine Workmen. "The Lord God formed man out of the dust and breathed into his nostrils and man became a living soul." In due time a companion was created for the man Adam to be a "help meet" for him. Woman came into being from the hands of the Creator. A garden was planted eastward in Eden and the first pair were placed there "to dress it and keep it." The world was young. Man and woman were happy and contented. Nothing arose to mar the scene. Angels of God visited and revisited the holy pair to instruct them and to enjoy their company. The Creator Himself walked in Eden in the "cool of the day" to communicate with Adam and Eve. They were told of the rebellion of Lucifer one of the covering cherubs and warned to have nothing to do with him. In other words they were now placed on probation. They must be free moral agents There is no coercion in the universe of God. If they remained faithful to their creator it must be from choice and not because there was nothing else to be done. So a restriction was placed over them. They must not eat of one of the trees of the garden. All the other trees were at their disposal but one tree situated in the midst of the garden must be prohibited. Its fruit was not to be touched lest death come upon them. This was their time of test. They were to be tried. They were at this time placed on probation. There is great suspense in heaven among the heavenly beings who do not know the end from the beginning as does God. How will man meet his test? This is the great all-absorbing topic among the angels. Will Satan be able to cause disaffection in the heart of man as he did with a third part of the angels? The answer to this question must remain to be given at another time.

Theaters

Last Night's Show.

Fred Stone and David Montgomery were the two bright particular stars that drew a large crowd to the Auditorium Friday evening to witness the musical fantasy, "The Lady of the Slipper," the play which until a few weeks ago boasted of Elsie Janis as a co-star, she having left, however, with her mother for London, where she is under contract for an engagement at a handsome salary in one of the theatres of the English metropolis. Her place, however, was admirably filled by Helen Falconer, a graceful little lady with a charming voice, whose pleasing personality found immediate favor with the audience.

The musical, adapted from the old fable, "Cinderella, or the Crystal Slipper," is in three acts, the production being strikingly staged, a company of seventy-five participating. The varied and handsome costumes, with the grandeur of the scenery, blended excellently together, and the musical was seen exactly as produced in the Globe theatre, New York, where it ran for an entire season. The first act depicted the kitchen in the castle of the baron, where the fairy godmother appears, and ended with her calling for a pumpkin and six white mice, which she turned into a coach with six dashing white ponies going at break-neck speed for the ball at the prince's palace. The second act showed a beautiful ballroom scene in the palace, and it was here that Miss Falconer showed her true artistic talent when, with Douglas Stevenson as Prince Maximilian, she was seen in two of the most pleasing and graceful dances ever witnessed on a local stage. The duets of the couple were also excellently translated. A travesty on the dances was given by Mr. Stone and Miss Louise Mackintosh that kept the audience convulsed, both dancers at times seemingly doing the impossible. In this act Messrs. Montgomery and Stone did their famous song and dance, "Them Was the Childhood Days," a travesty on the first song and dance ever done by the comedians. Mr. Stone also exhibited his eccentric acrobatic work and gave an exhibition of baton juggling which was truly wonderful. Marjorie Bentley and sixteen handsome young girls were also seen in a classic ballet, Miss Bentley being one of the best toe dancers on the stage today. The act closed with "The Drums of the Nations," presenting drums of the crown prince, the drums of Napoleon, of Old America, of Dixie and Yankee Doodle, each being portrayed by six drummer girls costumed to suit the nation which they represented. The final act again showed the kitchen of the baron, with Montgomery and Stone in characters of clowns. Here the wonderful acting af David Abrahams as the baron's cat brought down the house. Mr. Abrahams was also seen in the previous acts, first as the cat and then as a massive dog. Next came the prince, seeking the owner of the slipper which was left in the ball room. He finds Cinderella and "they lived happily ever afterward." The pictorial effect in the final act was the work of the Kinemacolor Company of America.

The Lodges

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS

Newark Lodge No. 13.

The meeting held by Newark lodge last Thursday evening was a very interesting one. One application was balloted on and one application received.

The Knight rank was conferred in full amplified form upon a class of candidates and it is needless to say that the work was well done, as Newark lodge has a record for doing good work especially in this degree.

Captain Eugene Wollinsky with his drill team composed of members of Licking Co. No. 121, uniform rank, was present and put on an excellent drill which added much to the pleasure of the evening. Captain Wollinsky deserves much credit for the interest he has taken with this team and we predict that in the near future we will have a drill team that will be second to none in this Grand Domain.

There will be no degrees conferred next meeting, following the regular routine business there will be a general get together of the members and we hope that every new member taken in this winter will be present so that we may get better acquinted. Let every member who possibly can be present at this meeting.

Roland Lodge No. 305

The beautiful Page rank was conferred by Roland lodge No. 305 on two candidates Tuesday evening. One application was received and six elected to membership. The Esquire rank next Tuesday evening. There will probably be no work on Tuesday evening, April 14, on account of the military ball given by the Uniform Rank, as a large number of the boys will want to attend the ball. The Page rank is slated for April 21. The sick list has been unusually heavy the past few weeks, nine of the brothers being reported at last meeting. The Chancellor Commander reported most of these improving rapidly. While the membership campaign closed last Tuesday, the boys are ever on the alert for good material to add to our ranks. Final plans for the big supper in honor of the new members will be made at the next meeting. It is hinted there will be something doing. Better be on hand if you don't want to miss anything.

Olive Branch Lodge No. 34.

Olive Branch lodge met in regular session Tuesday evening, March 31, 1914, with a very good attendance.

The third degree was conferred in first class shape. Let all members and brothers take notice and be on hand at our next regular meeting April 7, 1914, as the initiatory degree will be conferred.

Brother Odd Fellows, don't forget the "Big Jubilee Meeting" at Zanesville April 10, 1914.

It is the duty of all Odd Fellows of Licking county to attend this meeting to show your appreciation of the great and good work of our Grand Master, H. W. Kuntz.

Newark Lodge No. 623.

At the regular session of Newark lodge last Monday evening the third degree was conferred on ten candidates. We enjoyed several good talks under the "Good of the Order."

Brothers, the Zanesville meeting, Friday evening, April 10th, is to be a grand affair. Arrangements have been made with the Ohio Electric to carry us to Zanesville and return for 60c. The tickets will be good on any regular cars or on the special late cars returning that evening. Those who desire to go must procure their tickets from some member of the committee before Friday. Be on hand Monday or Tuesday evening at lodge and give us your name so we can be sure to have enough to get this reduced rate. You may leave your order or tickets at the City Drug Store with Brother Belke if it is impossible for you to attend lodge. Be sure and give us your name early.

There will be degree work Monday evening. We cordially invite all Odd Fellows to meet with us.

MODERN WOODMEN.

Cedar Camp, M. W. of A., met Wednesday night with all officers and 63 of the members present. The officers and team had a practice initiation preparatory to going to Columbus on Monday night, April 6th, to put the work on for Ohio Camp who will adopt a class of candidates on that night. A special car has been secured which will leave at 6:40 p. m. and the fare for the round trip will be $1.00 and all members who desire to go on this trip on Monday night are requested to leave their names with the clerk on or before Saturday night so that arrangements can be made for them. Wednesday night being the first regular meeting of the month, the entertainment committee served roast pork sandwiches, baked beans, pickles and coffee which was enjoyed by all present. Neighbor H. O. Crawmer, the chairman of the lunch committee, thought that as this meeting came on April 1st, that some of the neighbors needed fooling and he had some of the buns baked with cotton in them and it was laughable to see some of the neighbors picking the cotton out of their teeth.

A. I. U.

Newark chapter No. 24, American Insurance Union, met in regular session Thursday evening with 63 members present. Work was put on for one candidate by the combined degree staff. The district meeting will be held in this city May 7th and we hope to initiate a large class in the evening and to have with us a number of visitors from Mt. Vernon, Zanesville and Columbus as the district meetings are always well attended. The degree staff of Zanesville will put on the work for the class. At least 100 visitors are expected and a six o'clock dinner will be served for them.

An extra meeting has been arranged for the evening of April 23, the main feature of the meeting will be an entertainment with cards and dancing. Invitation tickets are in the hands of the members now.

ORDER OF REINDEER.

Applicants for vacancies on the new degree team should be present at the next meeting of T. O. O. R. Membership activities are promised for the near future, now that the new quarter has begun.

DAUGHTERS OF AMERICA.

The D. of A. regular meeting will be held Wednesday night in the E. R. T. hall. It is requested that all members of the drill organization be sure to be present.

HOME GUARDS OF AMERICA.

The club met Wednesday evening, and had a good initiation. After the general routine of business arrangements were made for a card party. After a short business meeting the Home closed in due form to meet April 1. All enjoyed the good meeting. We are glad to see people interested in insurance, as there is nothing better than good protection.

LABOR NOTES

The regular meeting of Newark Trades and Labor Assembly will be held tomorrow (Sunday) morning, April 5, instead of the 12th. All delegates are expected to be present.

Business that was laid over until next meeting will be taken up and some committees will make reports that may interest you. Some good labor orators are headed this way, and they may visit with us tomorrow.

The last regular meeting was a very large one and very interesting. Roll call of officers showed all present with one exception—chaplain—Bro. W. W. Litten acting as chaplain pro tem. President Morgan opened the assembly on time. The journal of last session was approved as read by Secretary Johnson. The following brothers were obligated as delegates from the Boot and Shoe Makers' Union, No. 286—Rothwell, Fishbaugh and Spitzer; also Bro. D. O. Bischard from Barbers' Union 114. These new brothers will make good workers for unionism. They know the benefits coming from labor unions.

The organization and vigilant committees made reports; also the Public Health made a good report in reference to co-operation with the city board of health. All communications read by the secretary were received and referred to proper committees. Bro. McInturf was elected financial secretary to fill vacancy occurring through Bro. Joseph Fulk resigning, on account of leaving the city. Bro. Fulk has been one of our best union workers and officers, and the assembly regrets very much to part with him.

PRESS COMMITTEE.

CARTOONIST IS NOW A NOVELIST

Charles R. Macauley, famous the world over for his political cartoons, has turned novel writer, and if the Advocate is to judge from his maiden effort in this direction, his career as a novelist is likely to be as successful as that of another celebrated cartoonist, Du Maurier, the man who wrote "Trilby." Writing is no new thing to Mr. Maculey; for years he has contributed important special articles to newspapers and magazines. "The Red Tavern," however, is his first venture into the field of fiction.

True to the spirit of the age the Dark Age of Mysteries and Miracles—Mr. Macauley seasons his romance, "The Red Tavern," plentifully with these witch-like phenomena.

The "Tavern" is not only haunted but takes wings unto itself and flies by night leaving naught but a vacant plot for the superstitious peasants to gape at when daylight peeps through the forest branches.

ADMINISTERS A REBUKE TO CHIEF FOOD INSPECTOR

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Columbus, O., April 4.—A rebuke is administered to R. B. Blume, chief food inspector of the Cincinnati city health department, for his statement that candy makers should be allowed to chew tobacco, in a statement issued today by S. E. Strode, agricultural commissioner and chief of the state dairy and food bureau.

Inspector Blume several days ago was quoted in newspapers as criticising the agricultural commission's order prohibiting employes in candy factories from using tobacco while at work.

"We are surprised that the chief food inspector of such a city as Cincinnati should be opposed to enforcement of such a sanitary rule as this," says the statement. "While thousands of dollars are being spent yearly for curing tuberculosis patients, such simple preventative means as prohibition of the use of tobacco with the subsequent spitting should be upheld."

Commissioner Strode also called attention to Inspector Blume's alleged action in urging that tubercular cattle be admitted to the state for breeding purposes, taken several days ago in behalf of a cattlemen's association.

SUPREME COURT MUST DECIDE WHEN VILLAGE IS CITY

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Columbus, April 4.—Does a village become a city automatically when its population becomes more than 5,000 under the new constitution?

This question the supreme court will be asked to decide by special appeal of a case involving East Youngstown, according to the announcement of Ed. H. Moore, made here today. The decision of the court will apply to a number of other municipalities in the state whose populations border on the 5,000 mark.

The court of appeals of Mahoning county construed the constitution to mean that a village becomes a city automatically when it has 5,000 population or more, and that East Youngstown is a city because the census taken by local authorities last fall for the sake of determining the number of saloon licenses to be allowed there, showed a population of more than 7,000. The federal census of 1910 gave the population as 4972.

The case is that of the state on relation of James Nestor former village marshal, against Thomas Murray, present chief of police.

STORMS DELAY PROMPT ARRIVAL OF MAURETANIA

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

New York, April 4.—The Cunard Liner Mauretina arrived today from Liverpool and Queenstown twelve hours late. She was delayed by a series of terrific storms which lasted throughout the passage. Passengers were forced to remain from the outer decks during practically the whole voyage. Three days out from Liverpool, a stateroom on "A" caught fire from a short circuited electric wire. The interior was badly damaged.

258,000 WOMEN ARE REGISTERED IN WINDY CITY

Chicago, April 4.—Women will vote for the first time in a Chicago municipal election on April 7, when 35 aldermen are to be elected and a referendum vote cast on a number of bond issues. The campaign that closed today has been carried on largely on the non-partisan principle. Eight candidates are running without the backing of a political party.

There are eight women candidates for alderman, and each made a vigorous campaign. Scores of political clubs were organized by women in the different wards and numerous mass meetings held. Many women took an active interest in the campaign, and in several wards the woman vote may decide the contest.

There are 258,000 women registered and it is estimated that 80 per cent of these will cast their ballots.

Interest of women suffragists centered in the fight made by Miss Marion Drake, a stenographer who is running for alderman on the Progressive ticket in the First ward, against John J. ("Bathhouse") Coughlin, Democratic boss, who, with his colleague, Michael ("Hinky Dink") Kenna, ruled the politics of the theatre, hotel and downtown shopping quarter for 20 years.

Mrs. H. E. Wilson and daughter, Miss Ruth of South Fifth street went to Columbus this morning for a few days visit with her sister, Mrs. Ruth Severance of South Columbus.

Easter Lilies.

(By Mary Ellsworth Fuller.)

Sway on, dear Easter lilies, sway to and fro,
Send thy delicate fragrance, wherever it may go.
Purest in thy color, most perfect in hew,
There's not a flower in the world that I'd take for you.

Emblem of the Savior, that arose on Easter day,
Keep on blooming, dear white lilies, just beck and sway,
Remind us of our duty, to the Christian and the knave
"Peace, good will on earth to all;" from the cradle to the grave.

SHIES HIS HAT INTO THE RING

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Columbus, April 4.—Formal announcement of the candidacy of former Senator David Tod of Youngstown for the Republican nomination for governor was made here today. For several weeks past friends of the Mahoning county man have been feeling out public sentiment, and it was said that assurances of strong support for him had come from various parts of the state.

Tod, who is a grandson of Ohio's war governor, besides having been prominent in the politics of the state for a long time past, is largely interested in business affairs, being possessed of an independent fortune. Other candidates previously announced and whom Mr. Tod will have as competitors for the nomination are Congressman Frank B. Willis of Ada, and former Judge David Davis of Hamilton county.

D. Meade Massie of Chillicothe, and former Congressman Grant Mouser of Marion, are mentioned as prospective candidates.

Even if party primaries should make David Tod of Youngstown, who today announced himself as a candidate for the Republican gubernatorial nomination, an opponent of Governor Cox on the Democratic ticket in the election next fall, Mr. Tod still will be an ardent supporter of "Governor Cox." He has a two-year-old colt by that name and has entered him for the state fair races to compete for the Billing's purse. Mr. Tod recently bought the colt which was named by his original owner because Governor Cox had admired him about two years ago.

PASSES

MAY BE GIVEN BY AMERICAN RAILROAD COMPANIES TO AGENTS OF ENGLISH LINES

Exchange of Courtesies Between Domestic and Foreign Carriers No Crime Says Court.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

New York, April 4.—Judge Hough in federal district court yesterday dismissed the equity suits brought by the government to restrain the Erie railroad company from giving free passes to agents or officials of the Trans-Atlantic Steamship lines and of the Great Eastern railway of England. The court held that this is no violation of the inter-state commerce act. In the opinion Judge Hough says:

"Admittedly, the Erie railroad can exchange passes with the New York Central and why it is obnoxios to the inter-state commerce law for the Erie to do the same thing to foreign carriers is more than I can comprehend."

Such exchanges of courtesies, the court pointed out, have long been in vogue in order to "curry favor with persons having business to place."

"If mutual back-scratching has become sinful," comments the judge, "the remedy is in other statues—not stretching the present one."

BATTLE STARTS AT GRAND RAPIDS OVER KILLIFER

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Grand Rapids, Mich., April 4.—Decks were cleared in United States district court here today for the first real legal battle between organized baseball and the Federal league. William F. Killifer, the catcher, who began his baseball career with Michigan teams and worked his way to the majors, was the storm center. The question for the court to decide was whether Killifer is the property of the Chicago team of the Federal League, or belongs to the Philadelphia Nationals. Last season Killifer was with Philadelphia. During the past winter he signed a Federal League contract; then he renounced the independent organization and signed a new contract with the Philadelphia club. As a result, the Federal League started injunction proceedings in the United States district court here to restrain Killifer from playing with Philadelphia. The petition also asks that Killifer be declared the property of the Chicago Federals.

The reserve clause, sometimes termed the bulwark of organized baseball, may not be attacked by the attorneys for the petitioning club, although officials of the Federal League have held the clause to be illegal.

The Store That Serves You Best

CORRECT APPARELING FOR WOMEN MISSES AND CHILDREN

Schiff's store, on the east side of the square, near the Auditorium, is a specialty store, in which its leadership is recognized. The production of the garments carried in stock insures an individuality of style and reliable qualities at sensible prices.

Very charming Easter fashions are shown in suits, dresses, waists and skirts. The styles this season are rather extreme, but of course there are plenty of the plainer kinds which appeal more to the women of good taste.

The management of this store in buying confines itself to nifty, conservative styles and good materials, and any one who wants something individual, yet at a moderate price, goes to Schiff's.

This beautiful $20.00 silk dress is a prize in the Advocate Booklovers' contest that is from the Schiff store. See it at Schiff's.

FREE BATHS FOR CONGRESSMEN AND SENATE MEMBERS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, April 4.—Members of the House continued today to enjoy free baths at the capitol without any fear, if they ever had any, that this privilege would be cut off. Any doubt that there may have existed regarding the matter was removed by the action of the House yesterday in voting to retain the item in the executive, legislative and judicial bill providing for baths and bathing attendants for senators and representatives.

During the debate on the question the House was aroused to laughter by Representative Bryan of Washington, who demanded to know why it was that the House appropriated $2,200 for washing 433 representatives and $4,000 for bathing 96 senators.

Chairman Johnson, in charge of the bill quick to see the facetiousness of the remark, made no response to the question. For years there has been some opposition to the free bath privilege on the ground of economy.
